

EVELYN JACOBS ORTNER
Center on Family Violence

Student Travel Grants Awarded

2016

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Future of Nursing Scholar Summer Institute
Elizabeth Novack, PhD student in Nursing
Participated in summer institute and presented preliminary findings from her dissertation

2015

Dissertation research
Delhi, India
Lauren Ferreira Cardoso, PhD student in Social Welfare
Worked with SafeCity India to explore the feasibility of conducting research on street harassment

2014

United Nations 58th Commission on the Status of Women
New York
Lauren Gurfein, PhD student in Social Welfare
Attended as a delegate of the Council for American Students in International Negotiations

American Sociological Association
San Francisco
Tugce Ellialti, PhD student in Sociology
Presented "Finding the truth: Forensic reports and the medico-legal discourse on sexual violence in Turkey"

2013

American Public Health Association Convention
Boston
Jingwen Zhang, PhD student in Communication, Annenberg
Presented "Self-presentation on the web: U.S. agencies serving abused and assaulted women"

2012

Nursing Network on Violence Against Women International
Charlottesville, VA
Su Kyung Kim, PhD student in Nursing
Attended conference

Eastern Sociological Society
New York
Tugce Ellialti, PhD student in Sociology
Presented "Maintaining gendered status quo: A socio-legal analysis of cases of sexual violence in Turkey"

2010

American Public Health Association

Denver, CO

Kristie Thomas, PhD student in Social Welfare

Presented "Intimate partner vs. non-intimate murder: Differences in legal, situational, clinical and personal characteristics" and "A look at college students' personal knowledge of and attributions of blame in sexual assault"

American Public Health Association

Denver, CO

Manisha Joshi, PhD student in Social Welfare

Presented "'Do you know how it feels like to drown?' Women's experience of strangulation in intimate relationships" and "Attitudes towards wife-beating among women in Kazakhstan, Tajikistan, and Kyrgyzstan"